DISTRICT OF UCLUELET

Vancouver Island REGION

SUPER NATURAL BRITISH COLUMBIA

COMMUNITY OF KITACO

WILD PACIFIC TRAIL
The Wild Pacific Trail follows the rugged coastline of Ucluelet, with views of the peninsula and the Pacific Ocean and Golden Group Islands. The trail is divided into sections: Lighthouse Loop, Big Beach Section, Browns Beach Section, and the section within Ancient Cedars & Rocky Bluffs. All sections are accessible year-round, except for interpretive trails which are closed in winter.

THE LIGHTHOUSE LOOP (2.4 km loop from 0 marker)
Offers panoramic views of the Salish Sea and the Amphitrite Lighthouse and can be completed in 45-60 minutes. The starting point parking is at the top of Coast Guard Road on the way to the Amphitrite Lighthouse. You may also choose to start at the Sea-View Park parking lot.

BIG BEACH SECTION (3 to 4 km)
Starts at the intersection of Marine Drive and Malibu Road. You can either follow the trail along Marine Drive, or for the scenic route go down to the beachfront picnic area at Big Beach.

BROWNS BEACH SECTION (4 to 6.75 km)
Starts at parking lot south of the Black Rock Coastline Resort on Marine Drive. After a short section of trail following the road you'll reach the wilderness picnic area. Continue to the end and double back for the most scenic path or you can walk in a loop via the forested access trails to Fulton Road, or east at the Pacific Hwy. Highway and take the trail path back into town.

THE ARTISTS LOOP (0.5 km)
Starts at the Browns Beach Section parking lot's view tower to the northwest and runs north. The scenic route follows a path of old-growth forest including 2 parker's patches as well as can catch the rays of the Pacific Ocean on a clear day.

ANCIENT CEDARS & ROCKY BLUFFS (6.75 to 8 km)
Head north from the Ancient Cedars junction to see wild rocky cliffs and surge channels. Hikes can be dangerous, so stay on the trail. There is no out, double back to return. On the way back to the junction, a new 15 minute loop through the largest trees in the area. You can exit on the like path to return to town but the trail back is not marked.
